

About Cinven

With a track record spanning more than 40 years, our focus is on delivering attractive returns to our investors by increasing the value of the companies in which we invest. We achieve this by identifying compelling opportunities and partnering with management to grow and transform good quality companies into domestic or international leaders that are highly attractive to potential buyers. Our fully integrated model – which draws on sector, regional, portfolio and capital markets expertise – ensures that our approach is consistent, creative and collaborative throughout the investment lifecycle.

Cinven is a leading international private equity firm with 67 investment professionals and 132 staff across offices in London, Paris, Madrid, Frankfurt, Luxembourg, Milan, Guernsey, Hong Kong and New York.
